Use Mrs. Hoosier's Plan.

"Mrs. Hiram Hoosier was going to get Hiram a pair of lace curtains for Christmas, but she made up her mind to buy him a Hoosier Kitchen Cabinet like you got for John."

It seems as if about one-half the husbands in Barre are going to receive Hoosier Cabinets for Christmas, or soon after our labor troubles are adjusted.

And the other half are going to give Hoosier Kitchen Cabinets to their wives.

The Hoosier Special is the ideal kitchen servant.

It works for you vigorously and constantly without wages.

Mr. Husband:

Do it now.

With the Hoosier in your kitchen you can do your part of the kitchen work without fear of becoming tired.

You need this servant in your kitchen, now, to save the big, unnecessary toil of Christmas.

So we are making the terms absurdly simple—you will be surprised at the low price.

A SURPRISED HOUSEHOLD.

When Party Walked into Residence of Rev. and Mrs. Downey.

The Rev. Edward C. Downey, pastor of the Universalist church, and Mrs. Downey had an unexpected visit of nearly fifty members of the parish last evening at their new home at 48 Orange street, and, before they had time to recover from their surprise at the throng which swarmed into the house, another surprise was added, when J. W. Gordon, in behalf of the company, presented them a handsome oak dining table, chairs and buffet and a beautiful hall rug. Both the pastor and Mrs. Downey, fittingly responded.

Mr. Gordon's presentation words were couched in the following verses:—

You came to guard a wayward flock,
You brought the zeal of youthful years;
You stand upon the Christian rock
That shelters hope against our fears.

Your guidance leads to pleasant ways;
Beyond the fount with broken bowl,
Where God His golden pavement lays
And builds the temple of the soul.

But Eden's loss has left us needs,
The flesh is heir to daily care;
The soul may feed on heavenly feeds,
But bodies live on daily fare.

We bring you that on which to spread
The earthly bounties of your Lord;
On which to break the blessed bread
Your humble pittance may afford.

Yet enemies shall never see
A feast before them spread,
For enemies can never be
Where love and kindness break the bread.

Your manly ways, your careful thought,
The manners of your tempered mind,
Are witnessed in the gift we've brought
To show that works are things that bind.

May grace upon your table rest
As you its bounties may partake;
Let us in spirit be your guest
And find it blessed to give and take.
